Community Member of the Month

Family: "I have 2 wonderful boys."

Early Years & Hobbies: "I was a lifetime volunteer and on the Board of Directors for the Girl Scouts of Racine. In my early years of teaching, my friends and I started the Gifted Education Program at Jefferson Lighthouse School. I had a beloved horse named, Lection Boy, that I rode quite often. I showed him off at the Union Grove County Fair and won some awards. At 92 years young, I was still riding my bike! Now, at 101 years young, I enjoy music events, cribbage, and spending time with my family."

Former Career: "I was a Kindergarten teacher at Fratt School in Franksville. I loved what I did so much, that I tutored kids in reading and built close relationships with them & their families. I'm also listed in the Education Hall Of Fame."

Fondest Memory: "Raising my boys and mentoring my students. I was invited to one of my students' weddings and that was just wonderful."

"Her Voyage" by Jadine Lydia

She knew, there was only one way out.
Not over, not under,
but through.
And so she took a
deep breath,
dived right in and
emerged
as something new.
